Senior Program Commissioner

The senior program commissioner is responsible for insuring a quality program for units at camp. He/she is the main point of contact for a unit and works very closely with units and unit leaders to make sure they are informed and are having a fun camp experience. The commissioner reports to the camp director, supervises the commissioner staff, and functions as a member of the camp director's leadership team. This person may also serve as the assistant camp director.

Minimum Requirements:

- At least 18 years of age.
- Registered member of the Boy Scouts of America.

Important Qualities:

- Personal and physical fitness.
- Sincere desire to help Scouts and troops.
- Ability to get along with people.
- Technical understanding of the overall camp program as well as unit program.
- Desire to maintain standards.
- Imagination and originality.
- Demonstrated ability to work as a team member.
- Strong skills in customer service and relationship building.
- Problem solving skills.

Specific Duties:

- See that units have a positive experience in camp.
- Provide help in solving units' problems.
- Interpret camp policies as needed.
- See that units have a well-rounded program.
- Build Scout spirit and enthusiasm in units.
- Monitor campsite facilities and, with the camp director and maintenance staff, ensure things are in working order.
- Supervise and train the commissioner staff.
- Assist the camp director in day to day operations of camp including program responsebilities.
- Visit each unit and unit leader daily.
- Perform other duties as assigned by the camp director.